For full details of fees please refer to the relevant platform offer documents. Performance is notional in nature and an individual investor's actual performance may differ to the that of the model portfolio. Investment performance is shown from 5/12/2016 and represents modelled performance only and assumes income received is reinvested.

Market Review

US equities continued to rise in July, with the S&P 500 (+3.11% in USD terms) and the Nasdaq 100 (+3.81%) rallying for the 5th consecutive month. All sectors ended July in the black. The MSCI AC World Daily TR was up +3.66% in USD terms and +2.80% in AUD terms as the Australian Dollar strengthened against the US Dollar, but softened vis-à-vis the other major and developed currencies. Emerging markets outperformed on the back of the resurgence in Chinese equities.

The CSI Overseas China Internet, which tracks the performance of the largest Chinese Big Tech firms, was up double digit, recording its 5th best month ever. Australian equities rallied smartly in July, supported by better than expected inflation data. The S&P/ASX 300 TR added +2.89% following the release of the Australian Bureau of Statistics' report, which saw the headline CPI rise +0.8% QoQ and +6.0% YoY.

Mid-caps and smaller companies strongly outperformed the Top 20, while value stocks outperformed growth stocks. The FED, ECB and Bank of Japan continued their rate tightening over the month with the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Index hedged back to AUD almost unchanged. The RBA held the cash rate at 4.10%, delivering its second pause since May. The Bloomberg AusBond Composite 0+ Yr rose +0.52% for the month.

In terms of portfolio exposures, we see a window of opportunity in August and September to make use of the spike in fixed income yields to buy longer dated bonds in our portfolios as we still believe the US economy will deteriorate in the last quarter of this year causes rates to fall. We do not see any particular reasons to reduce our exposure to growth assets too far ahead of the above scenario. We expect the rotation into sectors that tend to perform better at times of rising yields, such as energy and financials, to persist. Traditional defensives are starting to see inflows as well, signalling that investors may be concerned about what lies a quarter ahead. Our portfolios remain positioned accordingly.

Important information

The Morningstar Historical Corporate Sustainability Score is a weighted average of the trailing 12 months of Morningstar Portfolio Corporate Sustainability Scores. Historical portfolio scores are not equal-weighted; rather, more-recent portfolios are weighted more heavily than older portfolios. Combining the trailing 12 months of portfolio scores adds consistency while still reflecting portfolio managers' current decisions by weighting the most recent portfolio scores more heavily.

ESG pillar scores are displayed as a number between 0 and 100 with most scores range between 0 and 25. It is the asset-weighted average of the company environmental, social, governance risk scores for the covered corporate holdings in a portfolio. The scores measure the degree to which a company's economic value may be at risk driven by environmental, social, and governance factors. The risk represents the unmanaged risk exposure after taking into account a company's management of such risks.
